2021 Education Philanthropy Report: Stronger Together

Ascendium is pleased to announce the availability of our 2021 Education Philanthropy Report, Stronger Together. Our report tells the story of our philanthropy during 2021 and what can be achieved when organizations work together. For the first time, we also offer exclusive content online, including grantmaking highlights and videos featuring Ascendium staff members.

We are excited about the work that began in 2021 in each of our focus areas, and we appreciate our partners' commitment to driving systemic change in the face of challenges posed by the COVID-19 health crisis. While this crisis has further exacerbated existing inequities in our postsecondary education and workforce training systems, we hope that our efforts toward partnership and collaboration can help close these gaps in the year to come.
